COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Note by the Secretary-General*

1. In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolutions 1334 (XLIV) of 31 May 1968 and 1986/35 of 23 May 1986, and decisions 1978/21 of 5 May 1978 and 1987/102 of 6 February 1987, the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-fourth session (39th meeting, 29 February 1988) elected by secret ballot 26 members of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities from nominations of experts made by States Members of the United Nations on the following basis: (a) seven members from African States; (b) five members from Asian States; (c) three members from Eastern European States; (d) five members from Latin American States; (e) six members from Western European and other States.

2. Pursuant to Council resolution 1986/35, members of the Sub-Commission were to be elected for a term of four years and half of its membership and the corresponding alternates, if any, were to be elected every two years. The Chairman of the forty-fourth session of the Commission on Human Rights drew lots to select the members and, as applicable, their corresponding alternates whose term of office should expire after two years in accordance with the following pattern: three members from African States; three members from Asian States; one member from Eastern European States; three members from Latin American States; and three members from Western European and other States.

* In view of its length, annex I to the present document is being issued in the original languages only, the Conference Services Division of the United Nations Office at Geneva having insufficient capacity to translate documents that greatly exceed the 32-page limit recommended by the General Assembly (see Commission resolution 1993/94, para. 1).

GE.98-10369 (E)

3. In 1990, in 1992, in 1994, and in 1996, when the term of office of half of the membership of the Sub-Commission had expired, the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-sixth, forty-eighth, fiftieth and fifty-second sessions held new elections of Sub-Commission members and alternates. 1/

4. The list of the present members of the Sub-Commission is contained in annex II.

5. As the term of office of half of the membership of the Sub-Commission has again expired, the Commission on Human Rights is called upon at its fifty-fourth session, to hold a new election of Sub-Commission members and alternates in accordance with the following pattern: three members from African States; three members from Asian States; one member from Eastern European States; three members from Latin American States; and three members from Western European and other States.

6. In its resolution 1997/22 of 11 April 1997, the Commission on Human Rights reaffirmed that members of the Sub-Commission should discharge their functions in their personal capacity and called upon States to nominate as members and alternates independent experts of recognized competence in the field of human rights, as well as to respect fully the independence of elected members and alternates. The Commission also requested States nominating candidates for the Sub-Commission to submit nominations sufficiently early to enable the members of the Commission to assess thoroughly the qualifications of the nominees. It may be recalled that the Sub-Commission, in its resolution 1987/32 drew the particular attention of the Commission on Human Rights to the recommendation of the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery that the Commission should try and prevail upon all Government to nominate more women for election to the Sub-Commission.

7. With regard to the designation of alternates, the Economic and Social Council adopted resolution 1983/32, in which it decided that:

> "... notwithstanding paragraph 2 of article 13 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, the following rules shall henceforth apply to the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities:
> (a) A nomination of a candidate for membership of the Sub-Commission may be accompanied by a nomination of an expert of the same nationality, who shall be elected simultaneously with the candidate for membership, and who may serve temporarily as an alternate if the member is unable to attend;
> (b) The qualifications for alternates shall be the same as for members;

1/ See reports of the Commission on Human Rights on its forty-sixth (E/1990/22-E/CN.4/1990/94, chap. XXV), forty-eighth (E/1992/22-E/CN.4/1992/84, chap. XXIII), fiftieth (E/1994/24-E/CN.4/1994/132, chap. XXIV) and fifty-second (E/1996/23-E/CN.4/1996/177, chap. XXII) sessions.

(c) No person may serve as alternate for a member except the expert elected as alternate, pursuant to subparagraph (a) above."

DETAILS OF EXPERIENCE:

1. Attorney-General's Office

I practised at the local bar for a few months before joining the Attorney-General's Office as Temporary Crown Counsel on 1 December 1972. I worked there until August 1976.

During the four years I was posted at the Attorney-General's Office, I had the following schedule of duties:

(i) advising ministries;

(ii) appearing for Government in civil litigation;

(iii) representing the public minister whenever necessary;

(iv) prosecuting criminal cases at the district and intermediate courts and at the assizes;

(v) officer-in-charge of the Districts of Moka/Flacq for all criminal matters;

(vi) actively involved with the Law Revision Unit under Professor Angelo.

2. District/Senior District Magistrate

I served as Magistrate from 1 September 1976, and was promoted senior District Magistrate on 22 May 1978.

As Magistrate/Senior District Magistrate, I have sat in practically all the district courts including Rodriguez and Agalega. The District Magistrate presides over his court and hears both civil and criminal cases. He also hears chambers cases in his capacity as "Judge de paix". He works with a staff comprising a district clerk, an assistant district clerk, recorders, ushers, court cashier, messengers, court orderlies, police prosecutor and probation officers. He is the person who has overall responsibility for the smooth despatch of court business and is therefore a person who must have a sense of leadership.

In my capacity as Magistrate I have also been called upon to chair committees of inquiry relating to disciplinary proceedings instituted against public officers and boards of assessment relating to the compulsory acquisition of land by Government. I have also chaired the Prisons Board, a work undertaken "de bono" on Saturdays. Offences against prison discipline by detainees are tried and the board ascertains that conditions of detention are not oppressive and inhuman.

3. Magistrate Intermediate/Industrial Court

From February 1980 to June 1981, I have served as Magistrate Intermediate Court/Magistrate Industrial Court in an acting capacity on three occasions. I was appointed Magistrate Industrial Court on 1 July 1981. The Intermediate Court deals with the more serious criminal cases which are referred by the Director of Public Prosecutions. Civil claims are also heard. The Industrial Court moreover, deals with labour disputes during which conciliation is frequently resorted to.

4. Presiding Magistrate Industrial/Intermediate Court

I have served as Presiding Magistrate Industrial Court in an acting capacity on four occasions, between 2 November 1982 and November 1983. I was appointed Presiding Magistrate Intermediate Court on 1 December 1983.

5. Judge in Bankruptcy and Master and Registrar

I served as Judge in Bankruptcy and Master and Registrar in an acting capacity with effect from 1 September 1984 and appointed to that post in a substantive capacity on 18 August 1986. The Master and Registrar is in fact the "Permanent Secretary" of the Judicial Department. He is the liaison officer between the department and other ministries, between the Chief Justice and the entire staff including the magistrates. He ascertains that all the courts are adequately staffed, that there is no backlog in any specific court by close monitoring through monthly returns. He also keeps the Rolls of Law Practitioners, compiles the jury list. Quite apart from administrative responsibilities, the Master has a sizeable amount of judicial work as well viz. he conducts judicial sales before the Master's Bar, is in charge of divisions in kind, sits at the bankruptcy court with the title of "Judge of the Bankruptcy Court". The Master and Registrar is now helped by a Deputy Master and Registrar, a post which has recently been created. In my capacity as Master and Registrar, I was also the Chairman of the Central Probation Committee.

During my term of office as Master and Registrar I was involved with two notable happenings, viz. (i) the laying of the foundation stone for the New Court House which is now nearing completion, and; (ii) the preparations marking the celebration of the bicentenary of the Mauritian Bar in May 1987.

6. Puisne Judge

I was appointed Judge on 23 January 1989.

7. Senior Puisne Judge

I was appointed Senior Puisne Judge on 10 August 1995.

The Senior Puisne Judge is a de facto member of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission. Over and above his duties as Puisne Judge, he is in charge of matrimonial matters and Chambers matters. He accordingly deals every week with all the formal matters in matrimonial cases and distributes the case load of cases which are in shape. He also ascertains that a proper roster is maintained to ensure the availability of judges for urgent matters especially during court vacation.

8. Parajudicial functions

(i) In 1982-1983, I have lectured in French Civil Law at the University of Mauritius for the Diploma in Civil Law Course.

(ii) In 1983-1984 I was elected and served as President of the Magistrates' Association of Mauritius, an association affiliated to the Commonwealth Magistrates' and Judges' Association which is based in London.

(iii) From 1984 to 1986, I have sat on the Board of the Council of Legal Education.

(iv) I have also on numerous occasions served as Examiner/Chairman of Board of Examiners at the examinations held for the three branches of the legal profession, viz. notary, attorney and barrister.

(v) In 1988, I was chosen by Sir Cassarn Moolan, then Chief Justice, to represent the Judiciary of Mauritius at the Commonwealth Magistrates and Judges Conference in Halifax, Canada.

(vi) In 1989-1990, I have lectured at the Council of Legal Education in Commercial Law.

(vii) In September 1990, I was chosen by Sir Victor Glover, then Chief Justice, to represent the Mauritius Judiciary at a conference held in Beijing by the World Jurists Association and sat as a panellist on the "Judiciary Panel".

(viii) In 1990-1991, I presided over the Commission of Inquiry on the National Handicraft Centre.

9. I.T. development

In November 1989, I was requested by Sir Victor Glover, to study and appraise the advisability of introducing computers within the court environment and to be in charge of the I.T. development programme at the Supreme Court. I am still in charge of that project which has gone a long way towards intensive implementation.

The main achievements so far are:

(a) The staff of the Supreme Court is now computer literate to an appreciable degree and all the sections of the Supreme Court are now computerized;

(b) There is a LAN (Local Area Network) which permits all judges to access from their individual chambers data (judgements of the Supreme Court) which are stored in a main server. Research is also possible through a programme which permits text retrieval;

(c) We have recently received a Minitel at the Supreme Court giving us access to French legal database.

I have visited "technology courts" in Singapore, Hong Kong and Australia which use the computer as a major productivity tool. Very soon we are moving to the next stage of development which will permit Digital recording of court proceedings on a D.A.T. (Digital Audio Tape) and which will appreciably shorten hearing time at the Supreme Court.

I have also initiated a project to reprint the Mauritius reports which date back to 1861. This project has now reached the finalization stage. The data will be electronically stored and made available on CD-Rom as well.

10. Social activities

(i) I am serving on the Board of Governors of St. Joseph's College and have been doing so for the past 5 years. The Board sets and streamlines policies. It also ascertains that there is no material want which would hamper the progress of the college;

(ii) I have been a member of the Lions Club of Port Louis for over 10 years. I was President for the year 1988-1989 and have represented my club in Reunion and Madagascar. This year I was awarded the Melvin Jones Fellowship which is the highest award of the Lions Clubs International Association.
